

"A city has been laid out upon a magnificent scale, being nearly four miles in length and three in breadth; the streets at right angles with each other, eight rods or one hundred and thirty-two feet wide, with walks of 20 feet; the blocks forty rods square, divided into eight lots each of which contains an acre and a quarter of ground."

Captain Howard Stansbury—1856

The scene is in 1853. This is artist Frederick Piercy's impression of "Great Salt Lake." A woodcut and steel engraving, it was one of several impressions done by Mr. Piercy for the book "Route From Liverpool to G.S.L."

published in 1855 in Liverpool. A candid and realistic view, it showed how city looked six years after founding.

Street in foreground was East Temple Street, Street. Utah Historical Society has one of origi-